PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE

Veneration (Victoria W & Nicole B)

Suit your desires

22:00-22:15

[*violent and strong sexual content]

Suit your desires offers a safe space for the catharsis of our frustrations with the unjust power dynamic of predominantly white cis male CEOs perpetrating ecocide on us: the marginalised communities through the dom-sub ritual of BDSM performance. Presenting themselves as the archetypal dom-priestess Anima, Veneration will invite members of the audience on stage to vent their emotions and opinions in any way they see fit at the "subs in suits" who represent the collective CEO archetype under our control. This ritual aims to cure the community through performative catharsis so that they might be able to combat ecocide more efficiently once they experience a flipping of the power dynamics.

MISS HERNIA & CO

Tasty

23:15-23:30

Miss HerNia & Co present a joyously terrifying dystopian scene of a near future where the mutant offspring of our throwaway society exist and revel in our ecological disaster, regurgitating their phlegm-pop songs and expressing shameless self-love. Their show 'Tasty' is an explosive orgasm of venereal proportions, an STD-slap to the senses where the part-human-part-fatberg progeny beckon fatberg deities through butter sculpting, sacred potato popping and sandwich making ceremonies. Will they succeed in drawing you into their carnal carnival?

*For any further information ask one of the team members wearing a high visibility yellow arm strap or at the info desk downstairs.

UPSTAIRS

JOSEPH MORGAN SCHOFIELD

here comes the sun (or throw open the window wide)

23:45-00:0

[*strong content including blood]

an anthropocene queen stalks the moors
the earth groans
frack me daddy frack me
that genderquake was a 6.8
nobody loves me and the sun's gonna kill me
it's JUST high pressure water
i'm scared + tired + lonely

A contemporary rite for queer survival, a stagger thru eco + gender anxieties, a collision of non-binary politics + climate catastrophe.

DANIELLE IMARA

Unexpected Item

00:10-00:15

What is the unexpected item in the bagging area? Imara performs the dehumanising frustration of the automated check-out experience in a disturbing hip-hop trance. Starring the recorded voice that drives you mad.

ARISE AMAZONS (KARIN VICTORIN & REBECCA TIGER)

CUNTsauna / Snippsauna

00:30-00:45

The Inner Climate Mirror the Outer Climate. A steaming hot performance by Arise Amazons! This is a "Grand Vaginale" wiccan celebration of the yoni / cunt / vagina / uterus through an onstage steaming session. Vaginal steaming refers to exposing the vagina to herbal steam to cleanse, care for and heal her and her-story. Being a part of our body that we are raised to neglect, the time has come to call this sacred part of us to awaken. How does this neglect of our inner climate mirror the neglect of the outer climate (climate change) and vice versa? Eco systems are sensitive! This performance does not exclude people who were born without a vagina/ uterus. As we highlight, the concept of the "yoni" or "cunt", being a symbolic matter, includes ALL. Join the revolution!
